Great News! - NAEYC Accreditation

After an extensive and rigorous re-application process, we are proud to announce that our Early Education Program has been re-accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children! We are immensely grateful to Angella Schroller, our Early Education Director, Administrative Team, and Teachers for working so hard to obtain this achievement and for continuously providing the highest quality educational opportunities for our children.

$367,000 to provide scholarships and support for the children and families of Jack & Jill Center. If you have any questions, please email Jenn Swercheck at jswercheck@jackandjillcenter.org.

Flamingo Flea

Thank you so much to everyone who supported our mission at The Flamingo Flea on Sunday, July 18th at Tarpon River Brewing! We absolutely love our involvement with this Sunday Funday Bazaar—your opportunity to shop local, sustainable, and handmade for treasures, home goods, trinkets, clothing, and more. We would like to give an extra shout out of gratitude to our hosts The Flamingo Flea and Tarpon River Brewing, and to three amazing vendors for donating unbelievable raffle prizes: @madeleine_for_you, @gigibsboutique, and @theloveliestdesigns!

For more information on Flamingo Flea events, please visit their Facebook, here or Instagram, here. You can also visit their website, here.

Commemorative Bricks

You can play a vital role in helping support Jack & Jill Center with the donation of a personally engraved commemorative brick set permanently in the entranceway of the Jack & Jill Center Early Education Building.

Funds raised through brick donations will support the essential educational and family services provided by Jack & Jill Center. Your brick will help pave the way to a bright future for the children we serve and the role they will play in our community for years to come. Click here to purchase one today!
